It's all part of the game. First date ... first love, anyway, first real love. Sort of funny to think back on it. Now I'm an adult—or almost one. I want to fall in love ... but who? Am I ready? I know he's for me. She's a good friend now, but she could be more. Marriage—that's a big step, but I'm ready—I guess.

I found the perfect apartment for us. It doesn't look too good outside, but the inside is just right and I know we can afford it. We'll have to make a strict budget though ... Okay, we'll wait till June. Whatever happens, this time I'm sure!

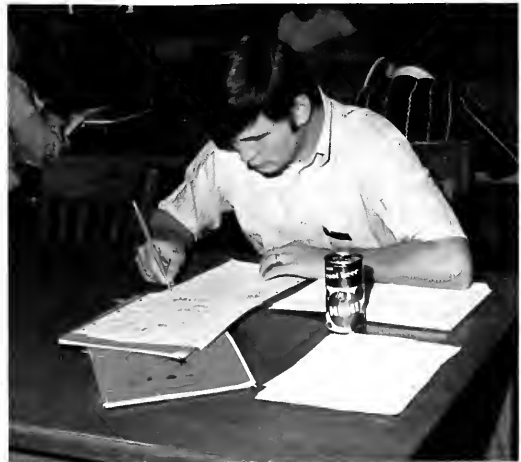

Now wait a minute, let's not jump to conclusions. If you understood him, you wouldn't feel . . . Man, that test was murder! I hope I can pass the course. See ya, gotta go to the library. C'mon, let's go to the Inn. You can study for that Chem. test later. You'll probably pull a B, anyway. Did you go to the party Friday night? It was a lot of . . . Hey John. How's your new job? Rough, huh? Night clerk—no fun. Hey, wake up, John, class has started. Who's playing? At 7:30? No, I can't possibly—term paper due tomorrow. Well, maybe for just a few minutes . . . Did you see the new clothes I bought? No, she's not here—call back later.

If I ever graduate from this place—I seem to have lost my objective . . . wonder why I really came. At the moment that degree looks awfully good. I guess I am learning something. List the four reasons resulting in the . . . Summarize in six hundred words . . . After completion of the experiment . . . I can make it. I will! Just think, in a few weeks, I'll be certified for Elementary Ed. You know teaching is great. Grad school, here I come! Well, at least it's a thought. Yeah, my dad wants me to go into business with him, but I've got to think about the draft before I decide. Sure it'd be easier with Dad, but I gotta make my own mistakes.

They say students never think much . . . but who are they anyway? How do they know? . . . I think . . . most of my friends think. I didn't think much before college, but now . . . There was a time when I would have been embarrassed if anyone had seen me —think, I mean. I'm sure some people probably figure I am snobbish or stupid, but I just want to work this thing out a minute. It's a search . . .

What do I want? . . . or rather what'll I settle for? This soul searching is good—if I find something. Some people are so decided and sure. I envy them . . . no, I don't really cause I think they've already shut too many doors. Me—I'm a door opener. You know I wouldn't want to have to admit it, but you can find a lot of keys here.

GOD'S MOSAIC

You are God's mosaic,

A distinctive, original design

The way you fit each "piece" of you together:

Your dreams, your education,

Your lifework, and your total personality

Will determine whether the "Design For Your Tomorrow"

Will be the masterpiece God has in mind.

Faculty—Administration

President Encourages Students

"A former teacher of mine stated, 'The liberty of the Christian is slavery; the slavery of the Christian is liberty.' This old saying complements the theme of this year's Let's We Forget. It is true that only by yielding our own selfish plans and desires can we have real freedom. By fitting into God's mosaic we will possess true peace and happiness . . ."

Robert E. Craig
President of Union University

Kathy Haney and Judy Barefoot chat with Dr. Craig on campus.

Trustees

A group of businessmen, ministers, educators, physicians, and other community leaders compose Union's Board of Trustees. These people are selected by the Tennessee Baptist Convention to establish school policy. The board is not directly involved in administrative or academic matters. Rev. Fred Kendall II led the board this year as chairman.

Board Members. Rev. Paul Clark, Rev. W. A. Foote, Mr. Thomas Patton, Mr. Ralph Lawler, Rev. Irvin Hays, Mr. Robert Jelks, Rev. O. M. Danjeau, Mr. B. W. Cobb, Dr. W. A. Boston, Dr. George Harvey, Dr. Trevis Otey, and Mr. Harold Brundige.

Humanities

"What did T.S. Eliot mean when he said 'we are the Hollow Men' "? . . . "Bonjour, comment allez-vous aujourd'hui"? . . . "What is your concept of the relationship between God, man, and the universe"? . . . "Do you believe that Adam was meant to be an individual man or a representative man?" The questions that the faculty members in the Humanities Division pose go on and on, challenging students to see life from another viewpoint (i.e., T.S. Eliot's or John Locke's). While opening new concepts to the student, however, the departments of English, Language, Philosophy, and Religion simultaneously encourage the student to find and support his own beliefs, thereby establishing himself as a stable, well-balanced contribution to society.

Mrs. Smothers takes roll.

Art major Judy Howell adds the finishing touch.

Fine Arts

Concerts, plays, and exhibits are all an outgrowth of the departments in the division of Fine Arts—music, art, and speech and theatre arts. Because of this characteristic, the Fine Arts are often referred to as the Performing Arts. Under the capable leadership of the Fine Arts faculty members, Union students practiced, polished, and performed at chapel programs, basketball games, and separate concerts and plays. Some of this year's accomplishments included several one-act plays, debate team trips, student and faculty art exhibits, Symphonic Band concerts, Chorus, Singers, and Madrigalists concerts, and the annual Stage Band concert in the spring.

Dr. Gerald Welker,
Associate Professor of Music.

Dr. Jeanne Shaffer,
Associate Professor of Music.

Music Appreciation is very harmonious.

Natural Science

The laboratory in the Twentieth Century has been a vital link between man's dreams and his discoveries. By incorporating mathematical concepts and establishing equations and constants, the once only imaginable hypotheses have become realized laws. Union's Natural Science division, composed of the departments of Biology, Chemistry, Mathematics, and Physics, attempts to familiarize all B.S. and B.A. students with some basic laboratory science and mathematical knowledge. At the same time, it seeks to stimulate interest in these fields and encourages majors and minors to delve deeply into related problems, with an eye on the accomplishments of Union graduates in the Twentieth and Twenty-first Centuries' achievements.

Students learn basics of chemistry.

Dr. Keller challenges students' minds.

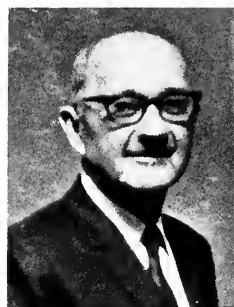

Dr. Herbert A. Sierk,
Professor of Biology.

Mrs. Elsie Smith,
Assistant Professor of Biology.

Dr. Charles W. Baldwin,
Associate Professor of Chemistry.

Mel Lewis mixes up a compound.

Social Science

From problems in America's current business cycle to the grandeur of the reign of Julius Caesar, the Social Science Division concerns itself with far-reaching fields. Including the departments of Business Administration, Business Education, Economics, Geography, History, Political Science, Psychology, and Sociology, the Social Science Division endeavors to establish an understanding of basics in each field while still challenging students to realize past, present, and future problems in related fields.

Dr. Bill Bouchillon,
Professor of Psychology.

Mr. Eldon Byrd,
Associate Professor of Sociology.

Instructor of Business.

Mrs. Nell Lafon,
Assistant Professor of Business.

Dr. Frederick Neely,
Professor of Economics.

Professional Studies

Preparing students for specific skills after graduation is the task of the Professional Studies Division, with emphasis concurrently on classroom studies and practical application of the material learned. Exemplifying this approach is the Nursing Program, whereby future nurses are taught fundamentals of physiological concepts in the classroom and given a chance to exercise this knowledge in daily hospital visits. Included in the Professional Studies Division along with Nursing are Business Education, Health and Physical Education, and Education.

Dr. Kilman answers a question on practice teaching.

Dr. James Pate,

Campus Life

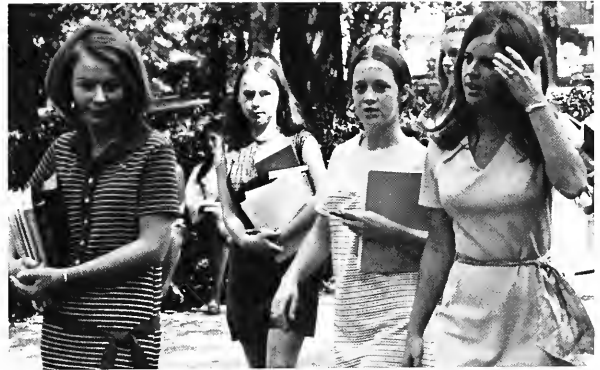

Life is for the Living— Meanwhile live!

Life on campus: it's frantic or goofing off depending on the individual or the mood . . . the battle of the sexes gets a reverse in the Powder Puff game cheered on by some of the Slender Set; pancakes bring on the bucks, banana splits are a "do your own thing", singing—studying—strolling—"soccer-ing"—sitting—smiling; and the nurses move toward a goal in their career of service.

SAI's First Effort Victorious

BSU All-Sing '70—a song marathon, a test of endurance, the time of year when Greeks lose sleep to learn the beat. The night arrives! On stage, let's go! Keep smiling—Remember, "I Believe."

For many this night was a new experience. Sigma Alpha Iota had never won an All-Sing trophy. Why? They had never entered the competition before. Zeta Tau Alpha had clinched first place for the past two years, but Chi Omega took the trophy home this time. Perhaps it was not such a new experience for the Lambda Chis; this was their third win in as many attempts. Thus—another All-Sing.

The winners and the losers walked away—relieved and wondering "What Now My Love."

Competitors unite to surprise crowd.

E's give keen competition.

ATO's were directed by Edmund Cepparulo.

Chi Omega ensemble presented "Close To You."

"Sweet Adeline" proves to be crowd-pleaser.

Homecoming

1971

UU vs. ORU. A crowd of 4,000—students, alumni, friends. Homecoming Court: Queen Ann King, maids Bonnie Bivens and Debbie Thomason. Alumni Award winners, faculty, administration, students—all pulling for Union in a close, fast-paced first half. David Marsh at halftime, choked-up on receiving an Alumni Appreciation trophy Honorable Mention All-American Awards. Best Dorm Display awards: Blythe Hall, first; Ellis Hall, second. Best Greek Display awards: Zeta Tau Alpha, first; Chi Omega, second. A furious second half, with Union on the short end of the score at the buzzer. The last reception in a line of receptions after the ball game. Later, the Spirit of Homecoming award presented to Chi Omega, with Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Zeta Tau Alpha receiving honorable mention. Super, surprising Homecoming, 1971.

President Craig and alumni display concern for Bulldogs.

Howard leads them onto court against ORU.

Honorable Zeta Tau Alpha won Honorable First Place in Greek Display award.

Blythe Hall was NO. 1 in the dorm display division.

Chi Omega "cooked up" a second place win with their display.

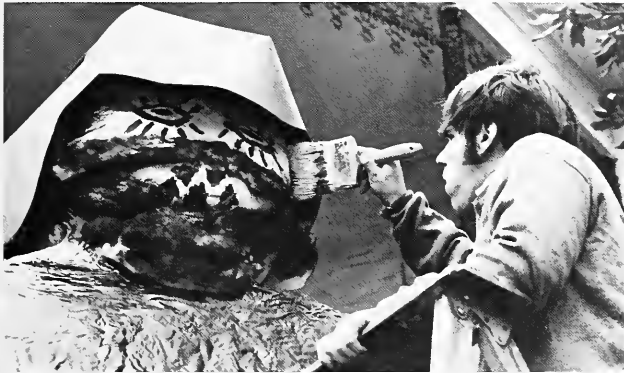

Adams Hall's decorations gave other dorms competition.

Lambda Chi Alpha wanted the Titans toppled.

Homecoming Arouses Spirit

President Ben Baker gave the ATO Titan a final touch-up.

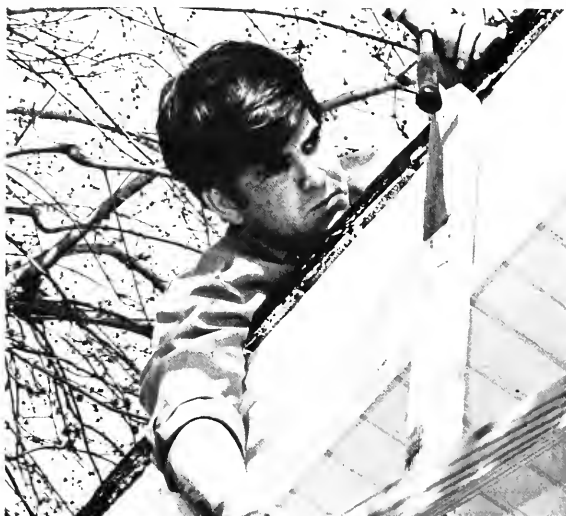

Signs everywhere—in the SUB, on the library, across the circle, in the trees—different words, same message. Displays—dorm, fraternity, and sorority—different slogans, identical themes. Even name tags—"Zeta Tau Alpha wishes everyone a Happy Homecoming" to "Chi Omega says Go Dogs"—different ideas, same purpose. A variety of mediums, but a central message: Show your stuff, Bulldogs—beat Oral Roberts Homecoming, 1971.

Ellis Hall won "whale-of-a-second place award" in dorm division.

During Homecoming everybody works!

This Homecoming worker knows it can be done, but wonders HOW!

Political Hopefuls Visit UU

A nationally known political figure. A room of intelligent, concerned young people. And, soon, a barrage of challenging questions from a group tired of double talk and never-ending evasions to a skilled politician prepared for such confrontations.

Such was the scene on Union's campus preceding last November's elections, when Senator Bill Brock and Representative Ray Blanton dared the encounter. At the meeting, when Brock declared, "I believe," students countered with "in what?" The successful give-and-take session gave both student and legislator an equal chance to voice honest beliefs on important national matters.

Congressman Ray Blanton discussed political views with students.

Senatorial hopeful Bill Brock chatted with students Cheryl Marberry and Geraldine Butler.

Snow Surprises Spring Semester

Spring registration was an experience long to be remembered. The night before, while students slept, the earth had been blanketed in white—the first snow of '71. Guys and coeds as well as boots, mufflers, gloves and trudged wearily to the "hill" to wait their turn in line! The campus was peaceful, calm, and yes, it even seemed isolated. Not for long; for as soon as one could secure his last class card, get his meal ticket, and accept the bad news about his tuition fees, he was off—scuffling in the white drifts, throwing snowballs, building snowmen, sledding down slopes and encountering mile discomfort as he unexpectedly took his seat in the snow.

Graduation— Echoed with Tears and Smiles

Every graduating class makes its last official walk with sorrow and joy—sorrow of leaving old friends and joy of facing a new world . . . they've been warned of the challenges and pitfalls of "that big wide world out there" as they review the destiny of what they've prepared themselves for . . . formalities over, there's time for the last handshake, some congratulatory hugs, a quickly wiped tear as parents, relatives, and friends move in to share the moment and to preserve it with film for posterity.

Janis Blumberg receives another congratulatory hug.

Danny Davis leads the Seniors to graduation.

Carol Weaver accepts Hughes Award for outstanding August graduate.

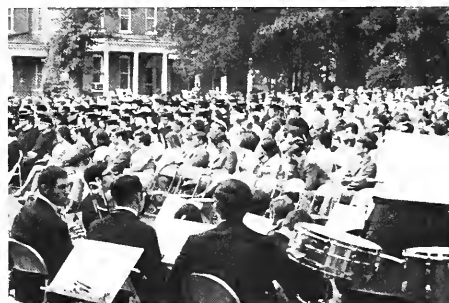

Tigrett Award for June graduate is given to Peggy Birmingham.

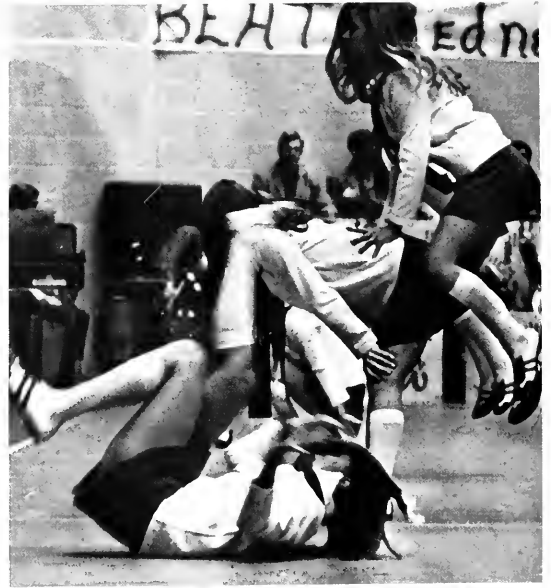

Larry Bickerstaff receives diploma and congratulations from Dr. Craig.

Wilma Dykeman challenges seniors in graduation address.

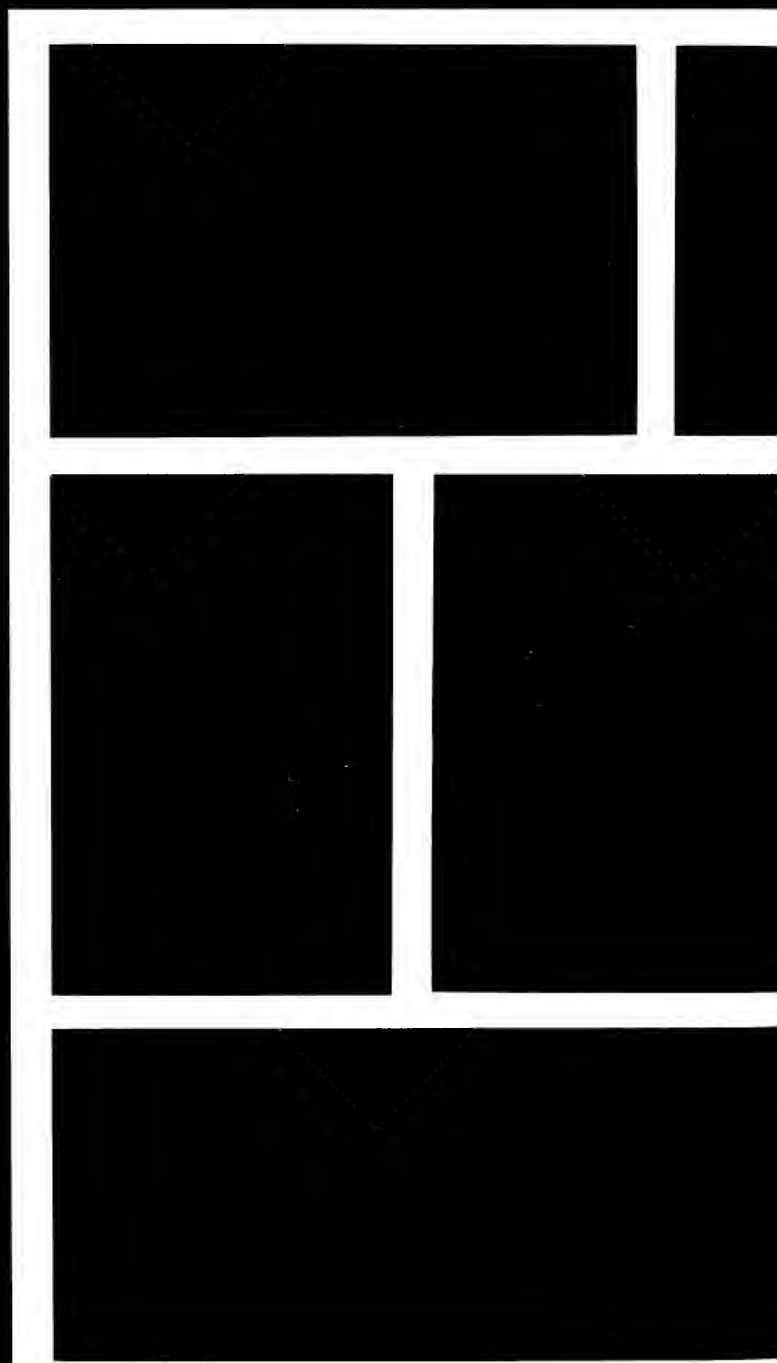

Spare Moments Rare and Relaxing

From sipping punch at a reception to playing tennis between classes, students find numerous things to occupy their leisure time. But in the whirl of campus life, students aren't the only ones who "take a break"—a visitor to the campus might easily see a faculty member playing baseball or an administrator at the SGA movie.

Mr. Union

Because of his dedication and eagerness, Carroll Griffin was chosen 1971 Mr. Union by his campus colleagues. Carroll, president of the Student Government Association, is also a member of Alpha Chi and Kappa Mu Epsilon, national honorary mathematics society. He is also a member of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Miss Union

Serving her campus with a smile made Ouida West the 1971 Miss Union. Ouida, an elementary education major from Trezevant, Tennessee, is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha and was chosen Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl. She served as secretary of the Student Government Association and was a runner-up in the Miss University Pageant. Ouida was also elected by the Union University faculty to membership in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Miss Union University And Court

With a springtime theme of "Slowly The Green Grass Starts to Grow," the eleventh annual Miss Union University Pageant accorded the audience a glimpse of spring's beauty. As the nineteen lovely, talented contestants vied for the crown of Miss Union University 1971, the radiant beauty of their smiling faces warmed the hearts of the entire audience. The presence of Miss Tennessee 1970, Carol Sue Ferrante, and Miss America 1971, Phyllis George erased any thoughts of winter dreariness. Preceded by press conferences and rehearsals and followed by receptions, the pageant was climaxed in the announcement of Miss Union University 1971, Miss Bonnie Bivens, and her court.

Organizations

SGA

The key to a locked door needs only be turned to discover what's inside. Opening doors to communication—student body, faculty, and administration—concerned Union's Student Government Association this year. Under a new constitution which established Senate and Legislative branches, the SGA sponsored major events including the Miss University Pageant, the Homecoming parade, and big name entertainment in the spring. With Carroll Griffin at the helm, the SGA incorporated a blood drive for children at St. Jude Hospital in Memphis, sponsored monthly movies in Powell Chapel, and staged the annual fall Talent Show in Powell Chapel.

Dorm Councils

Inter-dormitory rules and regulations tremendously affect the life of the Union student: they can make life peaceful or they can make it perturbed. The Dorm Councils serve a vital function, because in being close to the student and knowing his wishes, they can make rules which complement his ideas. Presiding at dorm meetings and acting as a communication link between students and administration kept dorm council members busy all year.

Ellis Hall Dorm Council. Mike Brown, Mickey Spense, Wolly Keller, John Howell, Jerry Carpenter.

BSU

Two Christmas Parties—one for Union students and one for underprivileged children in the community—were sponsored by the Baptist Student Union last fall. The Baptist Student Union also held its retreat in October and All-Sing competition in November. Two new additions to the Religious Activities Building were a full-time host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Baugh, whose presence enabled the opening and closing hours to be extended.

The Baptist Young Women's Association, part of the over-all BSU program, had two major projects this year: tutoring grammar school children at no cost, and visiting the local nursing home weekly.

Alpha Chi— Hypatia—Nestor

Say Alpha Chi, Hypatia, or Nestor Club to any Union student and watch for a response—it probably includes the words "good grades." The three honor societies are composed of top-ranking Union students scholastically. Alpha Chi, a national honor society, is composed of the upper ten percent of all junior and senior Union students. Hypatia and Nestor, however, both limit membership to 12—twelve top-ranked women in the junior and senior classes for Hypatia, and for the Nestor Club, the twelve highest men in the junior and senior classes.

Officers of Alpha Chi are Paul Moore, Movelle Sartain, Bill Troutt, and Melvin Lewis.

Nestor Club. First row: Bill Troutt, Bennie Matthews, Mel Lewis. Second row: Carroll Griffin, Phil Scott, Paul Moore, Ken Bryan.

Hypotia officers are Sue Murphy, Donna Kennon, and Joy Jeffcoat.

Mallory Math Club

Promoting interest and scholarship in math by broadening the understanding of mathematical concepts was the goal of the Mallory Mathematics Club. Meeting monthly under the leadership of president Larry Kirby and sponsors Dr. Joe Tucker and Mr. Richard Dehn, the club presented challenging programs for students interested in math.

Kappa Mu Epsilon

Ever-changing mathematical ideas and theories kept Kappa Mu Epsilon members intellectually stimulated. The national honorary mathematics fraternity encouraged students to pursue fields not covered in regular math courses, and endeavored to answer probing questions brought forth by members at monthly meetings.

Rutledge History Club. First row: B.J. Belew, David Epling, Kenny Reed, Larry Stewart. Second row: Steve Vaughn, Brant Brantley, David Miller, John King.

Phi Alpha Theta. Judy Besherse, Nancy Bray, Beatrice Robertson, Dr. Hiram Ward, Billy Joe Belew, Larry Stewart, Frank Hall, Mr. Donald Hoover.

Phi Alpha Theta; Rutledge History

Combining efforts, the Rutledge History Club, open to all students, and Phi Alpha Theta, honorary history fraternity, attempted to promote the study of history, to strengthen knowledge in politics and contemporary events, and to study careers in history fields. Projects included conducting a mock senatorial and gubernatorial election, sponsoring a rap session with Senator Bill Brock and inviting chapel speakers to discuss problems and changes in contemporary American government.

Student National Education Association

Organized by the teachers, of the teachers, and for the teachers, the Student National Education Association tried to familiarize future teachers with problems and challenges in education. Monthly programs emphasized classroom situations with an eye on the future, and brought contemporary concepts in education to the forefront.

Debate Team

A winning record gets to be a habit at Union, and this year's debate team wanted to continue the habit. Fall semester saw them with debates at the University of Montivello in Montivello, Alabama, and in local tournaments with neighboring schools.

Cathi Spencer and Mr. Paul Woodford coached the debate team.

Girls P. E. Club

If diamonds are a girl's best friend, then Mrs. Grace Williams is the P.E. Club's best friend—because she was a real "jewel" last year! Under her guidance, the club for girls interested in P.E. sponsored a powderpuff football game in Rothrock Stadium and furnished a hospitality room at home basketball games. Other activities of the club included acting as ushers at ball games, sponsoring a reception for faculty members, and generally promoting interest and enthusiasm for physical education and fitness on campus.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Teamwork is perhaps the most important aspect of athletics, and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes promoted fairness and cooperation in sports. After only a year's existence, the club was still expanding to meet the demands of Christianity on the athletic field at Union, both in intramurals and in varsity play.

U Club

"Athletes in action" could describe members of the U Club—even when they were not on the basketball court or the baseball field. This club's activities were varied, ranging from hayrides to parking cars at ball games, and choosing their Sweetheart-Gail Armstrong Day. The boys thus demonstrated their versatility in addition to their excellence in athletics.

Nursing Club

The tread of soft-soled shoes on tile floor was a common sound at Jackson-Madison County Hospital, where Union students got first-hand experience in nursing skills. The capping ceremony in the fall was added incentive to the aspiring nurses, which culminated in the awarding of the Associate Degree in Nursing in June.

Capping ceremony highlights nurses' training.

The Nursing Club. First row: Cecilia Goodman, Linda Childs, Betty Butler, Pat Wallin, Mary Cupples. Second row: Frieda Cox, Charlotte Murrell, Debra Cohen, Stella Everitt, Betty Peavyhouse. Third row: Donna Brackman, Linda Butler, Carlyn Davis, Donna Nehrkorn, Cindy Grimmer, Ruth Maclin, Rita Whitiker, Brenda Owen. Fourth row: Jan Caylor, Gwen Maxwell, Rachel Powers, Debbie Miller. Fifth row: Vicki Wallace, Sharon Taylor, Shirley Queen, Patti Bishop, Margaret Dugan, Phyllis Sipes, Shirley Watson, Belinda Barlow. Sixth row: Betty Griffin, Connie Richardson, Martha Hamlin, Lorrie Flowers, Betty Stephenson, Vernell Kilough, Ruth Booth. Seventh row: Earlene Kitchens, Brenda Smith, Barbara Reed, Robin Wagner, Mary Nell Brown, Betty Haoper, Ann Manner, Barbara Joy, Janiece Wood, Joyce Hunter, Rita Lang, Judy Shell, Marie Ross, Roberta Brown.

Phi Mu Alpha. First row: Edmund Cepparulo, Ken Bryan, Bill Rutledge, Phillip Turner, Mel Lewis, Ken James. Second row: Bill Troutt, Carroll Griffin, Curt Knight, Danny Henderson, Danny Jones.

Sigma Alpha Iota, Phi Mu Alpha

Union's two honorary music fraternities—Sigma Alpha Iota for women and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia for men—combined efforts this year to increase general student interest in the field of music while increasing their own musical skills. Sigma Alpha Iota entered All-Sing for the first time and carried away the ensemble trophy. The fraternities also sponsored receptions in the fall for music majors, and topped off the year with initiation in the spring semester.

Footlights. Seated: Sharon Callis, Dale Moore Williams, Movelle Sartain. Standing: Paul Moore, Linda Davie, Nancy Easterday, Debbie Epps, Teresa Hall, Gary Williams, Wallace Bell.

Drama Groups

Casting for a fall musical in 1971 consumed much of the time of Alpha Psi Omega and Footlights Club members in the spring. Fall semester showed the members busily engaged in staging a series of one-act plays for students on campus, and professionally entertained during meetings by playlets performed by members.

Alpha Psi Omega. Linda Davie, Teresa Hall, Sharon Callis, Nancy Easterday, Gary Williams.

Symphonic Band

Soothing strains of "Where is Love" from the musical Oliver followed by the rollicking "Irish Washer-woman" showed the versatility of Union's Symphonic Band in fall concert. Other numbers included the "William Tell Overture" and a medley of songs from Westside Story. The group's spring concert included such numbers as "Beethoven's 5th Symphony," and "Manninveen."

Dr. Gerald Welker, conductor.

Chorus—Singers— Madrigals— Quartet—Sextet

Programs, concerts, and tours—only a small part of the agenda for members of the Union University Chorus, Singers, Madrigals, Sextet, and Quartet. The Chorus, a large organization open to any Union student, performs both a Christmas concert in the fall and a spring concert second semester. The Singers, Sextet, and Quartet perform for chapel programs, local civic organizations, and various other events. Madrigals also present programs both in the university community and on tours.

Singers. First row: Janet Warren, Mike Hartsfield, Janis Bowen, Patricia Williams, Ken Alexander, Brenda Powers, Eva Mitchell, Teresa Clark, Jennifer Freeland, Ann Keeton, and Buddy Rowls. Second row: Debbie Halllowell, Howard Fuller, Rachell Robertson, Wanda Totty, Marilyn Johnsey, Danny Henderson, Cindy Segebarth, Valerie Ford, and Teresa Hall. Third row: Bonnie Bivens, Danny Jones, Greg Jordan, Anneto Bivens, Barton Shanklin, Esther Ulrich, Phillip Turner, Lee Gregory, and Retha Vaughn. Fourth row: Steve Smith, Phil Scott, Betty Hodges, Robert Thompson, Ken Bryan, Jim Criswell, Paul Wallace, Brenda Peeler, Ken James, and Gerry Claybrook.

Stage Band

Miss America came to Union this year and found at her service the top-rated Union University Stage Band. Under the direction of Dr. Gerald Welker, the band surpassed all previous achievements in both staging and quality of music. The official band for the Miss University Pageant, the Miss Madison County Pageant, and the Miss Tennessee Pageant reached heights which were but a mere dream five years ago. With the help of vocalists Elaine Atkins, Bonnie Bivens, and Don Wylie, Welker's men (plus a lady, this year) once again triumphed.

Doc directs during Tuesday rehearsal.

Trombonists Larry Smith, Mel Lewis, Ken Krei, and Curt Knight prepare for a performance.

Featured vocalists with the Stage Band are Don Wylie, Elaine Atkins, and Bonnie Bivens.

Lest We Forget

To present a total picture of life at Union was the goal of this year's Lest We Forget staff, as they attempted to give equal emphasis to all facets of campus life. From the rough draft to the completed copy, the constant emphasis was on a new approach. Under the leadership of editor Jackie Hutchison, this year's Lest We Forget endeavors to portray "Unionism" in its truest sense.

Cardinal And Cream

The voice of the college community was heard monthly last year in the student newspaper, the Cardinal and Cream. By giving students, faculty, and administration alike a voice in the paper, a more complete idea of the complaints and compliments about the campus was achieved. Several new regular columns appeared including Adams' Answer and Echoes From the Hill, the former emphasizing student ideas and the latter administration ideas. Understanding was the goal-the newspaper was the means-and communication was the end.

Greeks

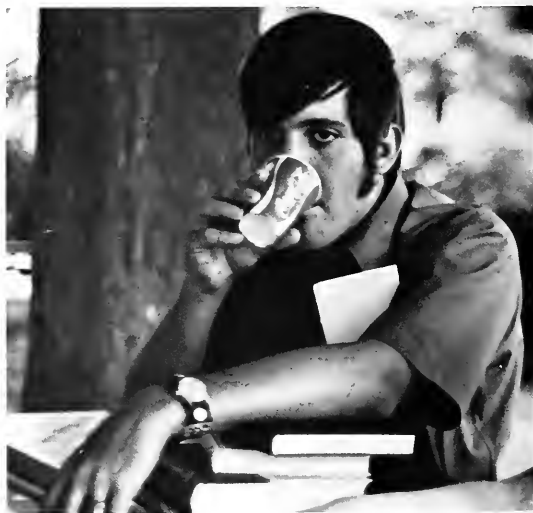

IFC

Composed of members from each of the three fraternities, the Inter-Fraternity Council is the governing body for fraternity activities. Various committees serve the community with civic projects and encourage scholastic achievement among fraternity men. Designed to meet the needs of solving inter-fraternity problems, the IFC plays an integral part in campus life at Union University.

IFC. Leroy Lane, Gary Williams, David Caldwell, Jae Jones, David Boyd, Jack Brown, Ray Moody, Steve Miller, David Kolb.

GSC Members. Jackie Hutchison, Anita Falcinelli, Lynn Skelton, Donna Kennan, Zan Acuff, and Kittye Richardson, president.

The last GSC?

Hopefully, yes. The Greek Sorority Council, which is composed of three representatives of each sorority, is now making plans to organize a local Panhellenic chapter on Union's campus. The organization of a local Panhellenic chapter would strengthen the ties between the sororities and perhaps enhance the chances of getting a third sorority on our campus.

Founded in 1898 at Longwood College for Women, Farmville, Virginia, by nine founders, Zeta Tau Alpha is today one of the most outstanding women's social fraternities, with 120 chapters throughout the United States and Canada. Though founded originally for fellowship and friendship, Zeta also emphasizes learning and scholarship, leadership, high personal standards, and service to mankind. Work with cerebral palsy crippled and retarded children, the national philanthropies, is actively supported by all Zeta chapters. Locally, Beta Omega, chartered in 1935 on Union's campus, as the 73rd link in the chain of chapters, helps to sponsor the two-day annual cerebral palsy telethon, which is the mainstay of funds for the local center.

This year Chi Omega is observing its 75th anniversary. On April 5, 1895, Chi Omega was originated at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, Arkansas by five founders.

Upsilon, the chapter at Union, has always been considered one of Chi Omega's finest. Chartered in 1903, it was the first woman's fraternity on Union's campus as well as being the fourth oldest of Chi Omega's present 153 active chapters.

The ATO fraternity was founded at Richmond, Virginia, September 11, 1865. It was established to unite fraternally the young men of the South with those of the North and to foster a brotherhood dedicated to achieving and cherishing permanent peace. It sought these ends by binding men together with the strongest eternal principles and teaching them to stand together and contend for the supremacy of good over evil.

Originally established at Murfreesboro as Tennessee Iota, Beta Tau chapter transferred to Union University and was chartered February 28, 1894. As a social fraternity, Beta Tau performs many services not only to its brothers but to the community and school. The chapter participates in all campus functions and works with Jackson service clubs, like the Lions, on some of their projects.

Alpha Tau Omega

Lambda-Zeta Zeta chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha was established at Union as a local, Lambda Xi Delta, in 1961. Four years later it received its charter as a chapter. Lambda-Zeta-Zeta is one of 171 chapters and 20 colonies with a national membership of 111,000 brothers.

Upholding this tradition of growth and prosperity, Lambda-Zeta-Zeta is climbing ever forward at Union. Its members are in almost every campus organization, are on new campus planning committees, and are actively involved in campus politics.

With a new program of fraternity education, Lambda-Zeta-Zeta will be building an even better pattern for Greek life at Union.

Lambda Chi Alpha

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity was founded March 9, 1856, at the University of Alabama, in the city of Tuscaloosa. Eight students who had become hard and fast friends were the founders of this brotherly society, which was destined to extend to the furthestmost limits of the country. Tennessee Eta at Union was founded slightly more than a year later on July 4, 1857, and was established as the fifth chapter within the realm of SAE.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon has enjoyed the longest existence of any fraternal organization on Union's campus, while developing a proud and lasting heritage. Sigma Alpha Epsilon has 174 active chapters, while claiming the largest number of initiates for any social fraternity.

David Marsh is named captain of the 1970-71 Bulldogs.

Pep talk and high spirits surround the bench.

New Season— New Coach

Without the services of Bill Henry, Union embarked upon a new season with a new coach, Mr. Jim Simmons. The Dogs themselves were short a familiar face in that of Lonnie Searcy. What would the new season bring? A scorching triple take. Union trounced the first three opponents to set a dramatic stage for almost half the season in one game . . . Memphis State.

Jimmy Martin dribbles carefully.

Union three reach for a rebound.

MSU Gains Revenge

Memphis found revenge in this year's trek to "Tiger High." The Dogs trailed miserably in the beginning of the game, but scratched their way back to within four points at one spot in the first half. But they seemed to lose focus and wound up floundering at half time, trailing MSU 45-34.

Valiantly fighting in the second half, the Dogs seemed unable to tip the balance of breaks in their favor. A crowd of close to 12,000 fans were thrilled by brilliant floor antics by David Marsh and scoring thrusts by Billy Howard. But that crowd watched our Dogs succumb in the end by losing a traditional season battle to MSU, 88-73.

Dogs Win Their Own Tourney

Winning one's own invitational tournament proves to be an interesting feeling. For Union it was such, as the Dogs clamped a first round victory over sister college, Carson-Newman, and went on to the championship.

Concordia Seminary, meanwhile, took on Lane College and allowed the Dragons to get the stage for the final night, which pitted the Dogs against the Preachers.

The Dogs set about to humble the Seminarians and vaulted to victory with a win of 97-79.

Billy Howard and David Marsh were named to the All-Tournament Team. David Marsh was also titled with the tournament's Most Valuable Player Award.

Sports Information Director Dave Bartholomew views the action.

Billy Lee adds a tally.

Strategy and defense were key factors for the Dogs against Athletes In Action.

Dogs Win Mayor's Trophy

Canine action was strong and talented in this year's edition of Jackson's Mayor's Tournament. First round action saw the Bulldogs pitted against Athletes In Action. The Athletes In Action used their height and talent to a great advantage in proving to be a formidable foe for the Dogs.

It was a tight well-balanced game, proven by a half time score of Union 29, and Athletes In Action 27.

The second half was still nip and tuck and culminated in a tie at the end of regulation play. In overtime, the Dogs pulled a final victory of 66 to 63 over the Athletes in Action.

Championship night saw Big U against cross-town rivals, Lambuth College. Bulldog belligerency held on tightly, and clipped the Eagles' wings 67 to 63. Billy Lee Howard led the Dogs with a total of 19 points to his credit, while David Marsh followed closely with 14 points.

UU Cheerleaders

Cheerleading is a hard business. Throughout the season of sports, these fine young ladies changed into screaming cartwheels on a moment's notice. Catching many fans' eyes and carrying spirit and pep all through the season, the Dogs were well-backed and well-supported by the 1970-71 UU Cheerleaders.

Epps says "Go!"

Bowers is overjoyed.

Clark yells loudly.

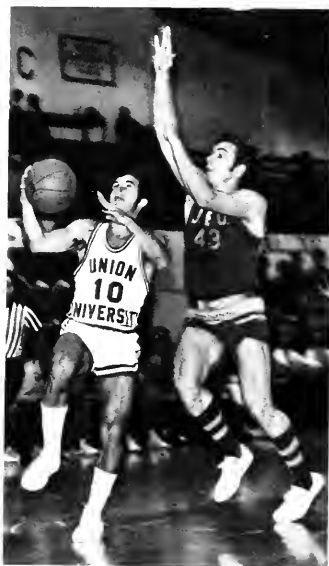

Nehrkorn reaches for wins.

Thomason leaps in excitement.

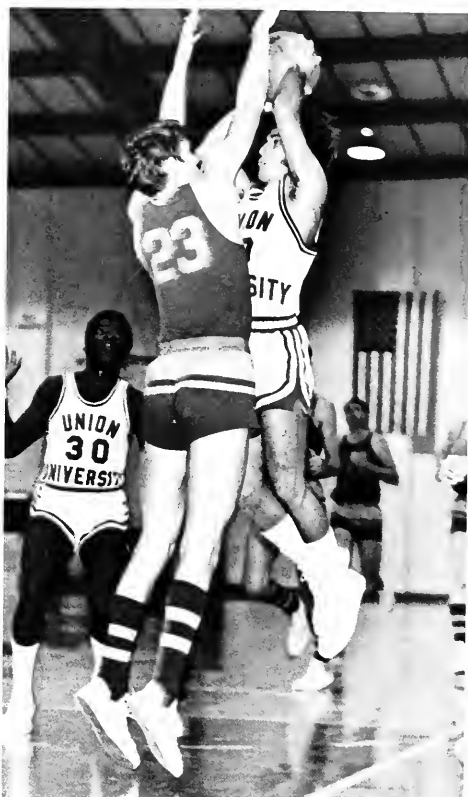

King spins for joy.

Not now, David!

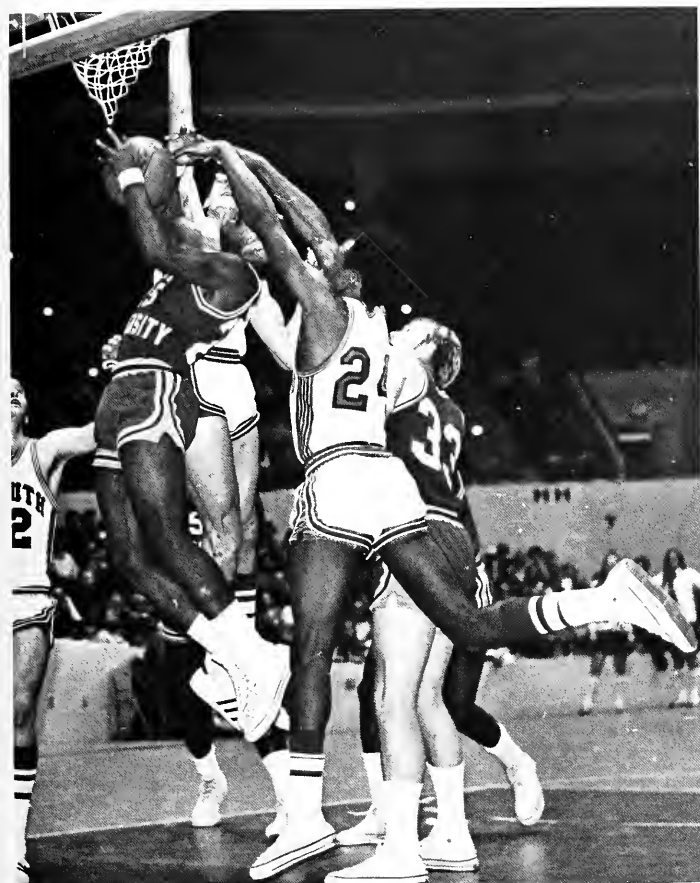

Skip looks for his man.

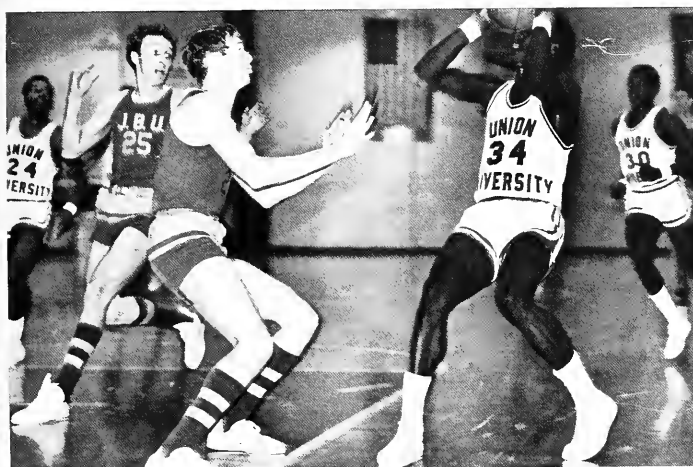

Meet your man eye to eye.

Marsh gets the slant on things.

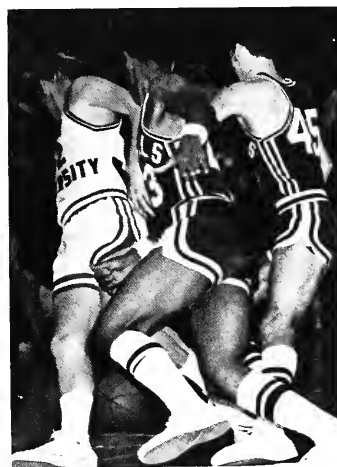

Jones gets dunked while Garrett looks on.

Billy Lee remains confident.

Bulldogs Led the Way

Ending the season, the Dogs look back with great feeling. The loss for the year of a promising Freshman, and the loss for the year of a stable two-year man did not deaden the will to win. Some games were, as always, heartbreaking losses, and some were gullywasher wins. Always, the 1970-71 Bulldogs led the way.

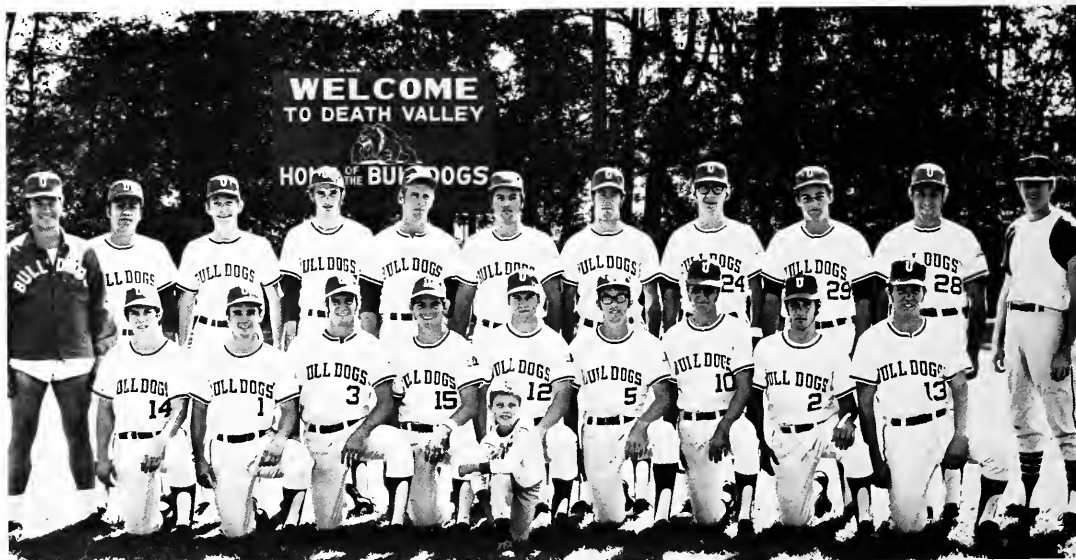

Over there, fellas!

Baseball

EXPECT A MIRACLE, ACHIEVE A MIRACLE. Remember that? Before the 1970 season, word was that it would indeed be a miracle to win the VSAC and the NCAA. But Bill Rozich, in his first year at the Bulldog reins and also as a head coach anywhere, had a hunch—no, more than a hunch, a conviction—that he had a winner. And a winner it was. The Bulldogs of Death Valley, in an unheard-of Southern tour, successfully started their 29-9 season. After three straight wins, five losses came during the strenuous trip through Florida and Alabama. Union suffered only one conference loss. After that, they won 21 of their last 22 games. On May 15, the Bulldogs won the VSAC tournament in Jefferson City. Only days later, Big Red went to Normal, Illinois, for that coveted trip to NCAA College Division tourney. Going into the match, the Bulldogs sported more wins than any of the four teams in the tournament. But the miracle was about to end. Facing the incumbent champion, the Bulldogs fell short in the first game. In the second game of the double-elimination tourney, Union was ahead 3-0 before the ninth started. But four runs were scored against the Bulldogs and the miracle was canceled. However in looking back, Union posted one of the best records in the nation and certainly proved domination of the VSAC in its last year of membership. So, what some persons call a miracle may be only the natural.

Our lives—yes, each is a mosaic. Each is a puzzle with pieces that eventually fit together. Building with tinkering toys, riding a bicycle, winning a spelling bee, hitting a home run, going to a first party, graduating from high school, going to college, failing an exam or even passing it, getting married—all of these and many more are pieces of that puzzle. As we mature, our mosaics continue to grow. The well-known Alfred Tennyson said "I am a part of all I have met." All that we've done, seen, felt, is a portion of the whole. The puzzle grows—becoming larger and larger, but never being so complete that another piece cannot be added to it. The '71 LWF is not just another yearbook. For the staff and myself, it is part of our own personal "jigsaw." For you—the student body, faculty, administration—it is representative of the events of your past year at this university. So as you turn these pages, you will be seeing a bit of your own mosaic.

Jackie Hutchison
